

Virtual Pre-Conference

Continuity of HIV Care in the Presence of COVID-19

José M. Zuniga, PhD, MPH
President/CEO, IAPAC

Welcome Remarks

Program

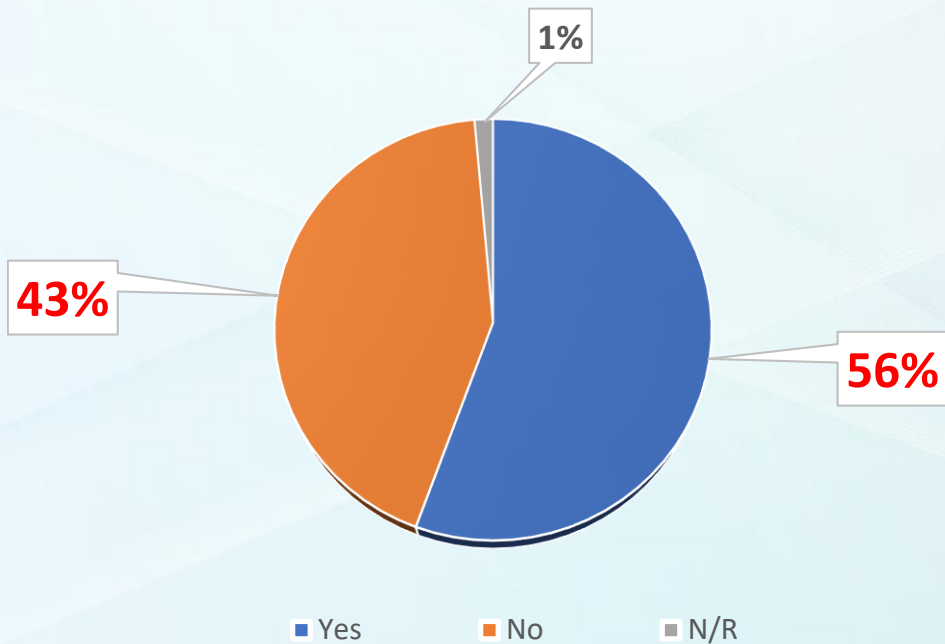

- What to Know about COVID-19 and HIV
- Managing Mental Health Conditions in a COVID-19 Context
- Implementing Telemedicine in a COVID-19 Environment
- Assuring Continuity of HIV Services in African Countries
- HIV, COVID-19, Inequities, and Community Resilience
- Optimizing ART Adherence within Disrupted Health Systems
- U=U: A Motivational Message for HIV Treatment Adherence
- Communities as Pathfinders in Humanitarian Emergencies

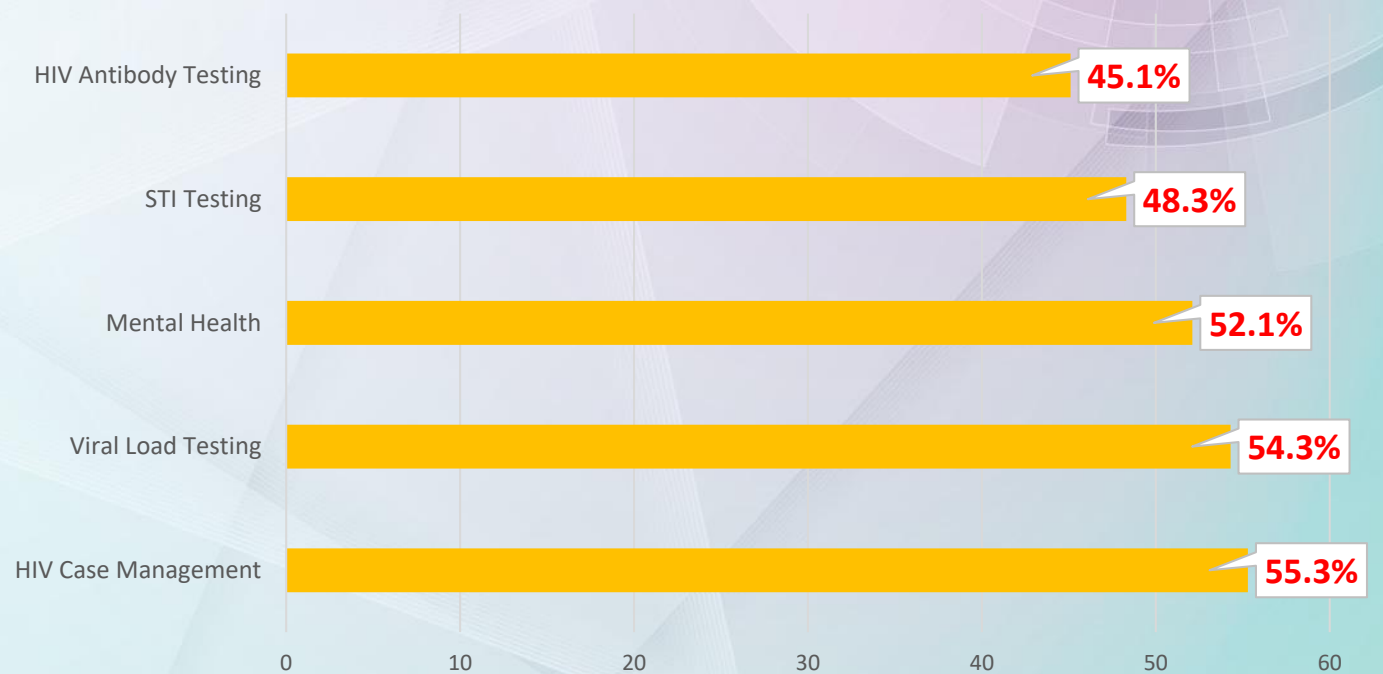

Why Are We Concerned?

Clinicians Managing COVID-19

Top 5 Disrupted HIV and Related Services

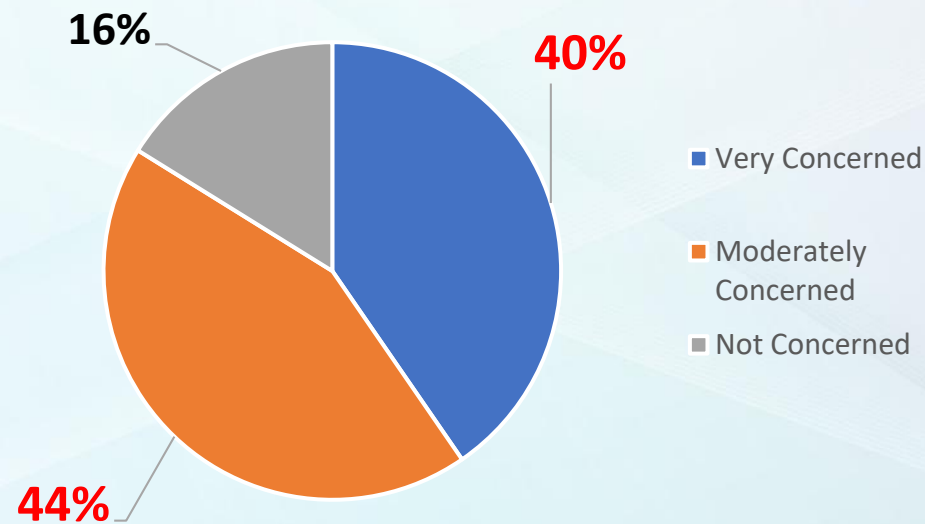

IAPAC COVID-19 Survey – Preliminary Results (May 6, 2020)

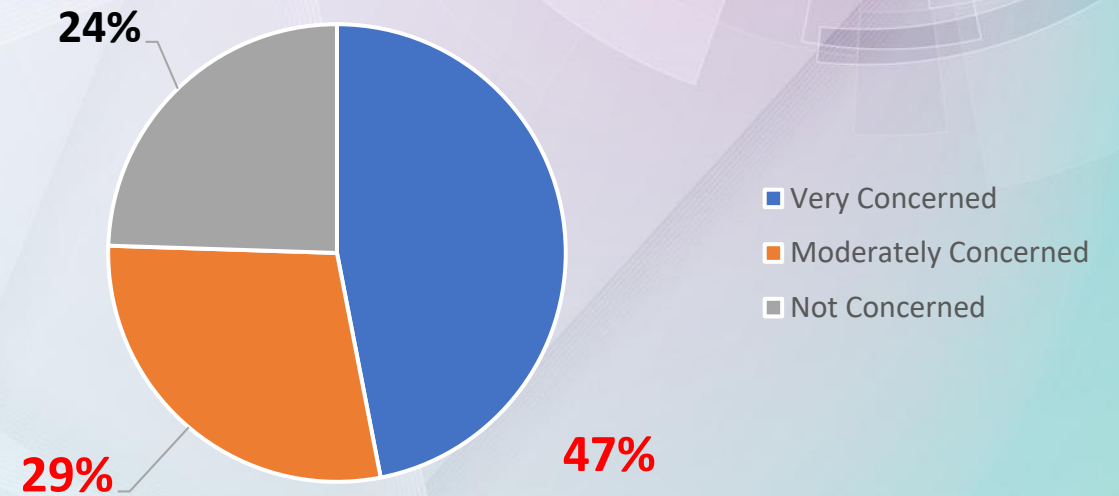

Why Are We Concerned? (continued)

Sexual and/or Other Risk-Taking

Racial Disparities in Outcomes/Mortality

IAPAC COVID-19 Survey – Preliminary Results (May 6, 2020)

Acknowledgements

▪ Distinguished Faculty

- Shannon Hader, MD; Amanda Castel, MD, MPH; Robert Remien, PhD; Viraj Patel, MD, MPH; Penninah Iutung, MD, MSc; Rico Gustav, Catherine Orrell, MBChB, MSc, MMed; William Matovu, Mary Ann Torres

▪ Institutional and Corporate Supporters

- IAPAC and Fast-Track Cities Institute
- Gilead Sciences and ViiV Healthcare

▪ IAPAC Staff

- Jonathon Hess, LLM, Director of Education
- Rajanique White, Program Associate

▪ Every clinician, allied health professional and community worker out in the field managing COVID-19 and/or maintaining a continuity of HIV care... We are grateful!

Adherence 2020

Adherence 2020 re-scheduled to 1-4 November 2020 in Orlando

- Call for late-breaker abstracts: Submission portal re-opens 1-5 June 2020; abstracts must be submitted by 5 PM EDT on 5 June 2020
- Five tracks: HIV Treatment Adherence; HIV Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis; HIV Care Continuum; Implementation Science (new for 2020); Community Engagement (new for 2020)

Fast-Track Cities 2020 scheduled for 7-10 September 2020 in Lisbon

- Focus on urban HIV, TB, and viral hepatitis responses
- COVID-19: The Metropolitan Condition in an Unpredictable World
- Abstracts must be submitted by 5 pm EDT, June 5, 2020; new COVID-19 response abstract category integrated into conference program