

Accelerating the AIDS Response in Urban Settings

MAIRIE DE PARIS

On World AIDS Day 2014, mayors, health officials, and civil society representatives from 26 cities worldwide met in Paris to sign the Paris Declaration as a commitment to fast-tracking their local AIDS response.

FAST-TRACK TARGETS (2020)

90%

of people living with HIV knowing their HIV status.

90%

of people who know their HIV-positive status on treatment.

90%

of people on treatment with suppressed viral loads.

75%

reduction of new HIV infections

0 stigma and discrimination.

FAST-TRACK CITIES: ENDING THE AIDS EPIDEMIC

Cities Achieving 90-90-90 Targets by 2020

- 90% of people being well controlled
- 90% of people who have the virus know their status
- 90% of people on treatment with suppressed viral loads

FREE RELEASE

Mayors from around the world sign Paris Declaration to end the AIDS epidemic

UNAIDS, UNHABITAT and IAPAC today announce a new report on the progress of fast-track cities towards the 90-90-90 target by 2020.

PARIS, 1 December 2011 – On the eve of the 2011 Paris Declaration, the report from around the world on the progress of fast-track cities towards the 90-90-90 target by 2020 is published. The report is the first of its kind, and is a landmark in the fight against AIDS. It is the first time that the progress of fast-track cities towards the 90-90-90 target by 2020 is published. The report is the first of its kind, and is a landmark in the fight against AIDS. It is the first time that the progress of fast-track cities towards the 90-90-90 target by 2020 is published.

FTC PARTNERSHIPS

- FTC Partners: IAPAC, City of Paris, UN-Habitat, UNAIDS
- Partnerships:
 - Civil society organizations
 - Human rights-based organizations
 - Professional associations
 - Implementing agencies
 - Research institutions
 - Academic institutions
 - UN agencies
 - Financing institutions
 - Corporate sector entities

IMPLEMENTATION PRIORITIES

