

Event Registration Terms and Conditions

Registration for any of our events constitutes acceptance of, and agreement to, the following terms, including the consent statement, code of conduct, image release, and refund/payment policies.

Registration Consent Statement

By registering, attending, or viewing the event, registrants agree to display professional, respectful behavior towards speakers, staff, and fellow attendees at all times. Harassment will not be tolerated under any circumstances. This includes, but is not limited to, harassment or discrimination based on gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age, religion, or any other status protected by applicable law in the jurisdiction where the conference or program is held.

Event organizers reserve the right to take immediate action in response to inappropriate behavior, which may include removal from the event without refund, denial of entry to future events, and/or legal action, as deemed appropriate.

Cancellations, Refunds, and Payment Policies

By registering for an event with a registration fee, you acknowledge and agree to the cancellation, refund, and payment policies posted on the event website.

Deadlines are final and strictly enforced. No refunds, credits, or transfers will be provided after the stated deadlines.

Failure to make payment by the published deadlines may result in automatic cancellation of your registration without refund of any partial payments already made.

If you register at the IAPAC Member rate but are not an active IAPAC member at the time of registration, you will be required either to renew your membership or to pay the difference between the member and non-member registration fees at on-site check-in before you will be permitted to attend the conference.

By proceeding with registration, you accept these policies in full. If you have any questions, you must contact a member of the IAPAC or FTCL team prior to completing registration. It is the full responsibility of the registrant to familiarize themselves with the event's cancellation and refund policies and deadlines.

Communications

By registering for an event, you expressly consent to receive email communications related to IAPAC-hosted events. You may unsubscribe at any time by selecting the "Unsubscribe" link in any email communication. However, by doing so you acknowledge and accept that you may miss critical communications regarding your event participation.

Image Release

All event registrants grant permission to the International Association of Providers of AIDS Care (IAPAC) and its designees to capture photographs and/or video recordings during the event, including while participants engage in conference or event-related activities. Registrants further grant IAPAC the right to edit, use, and reuse such materials for educational, public service, marketing, outreach, or any other purposes selected by IAPAC, without compensation.

By registering, participants expressly waive any rights, titles, or interests in photographs, video, recordings, reproductions, or copies, and release IAPAC and its designees from any and all liability arising from such use.
